From The Principal

Kia ora koutou

Welcome to Term 3, and I trust you had an enjoyable break.

The term ahead has many highlights to look forward to, and you should by now have received a list of key dates, which you can also download here via our website. A major event coming soon will be our Y3/4 Production, showcasing the talents of our middle school classes in what is sure to be a memorable experience for all those involved. Next week, we celebrate Book Week with fun reading-related activities, including the opportunity to dress as a favourite literary character on Thursday, 1st of August.

Many of you will have noticed work progressing on our 4-classroom renovation in Block 1. These will be refreshed and modernised as individual learning spaces (as opposed to open plan modern learning environments). We continue to take the view that this model works best for our learners and our approach to curriculum. Works are also underway to upgrade three of our Junior bathrooms, (which are over 20 years old and definitely due an upgrade!). The disruption is minimal, with works expected to be completed by the end of the term.

An important reminder also that children are under no circumstances to be left unsupervised before or after school (before 8.15am or after 3.15pm). In particular, we have recently noticed a number of children left waiting to be picked up on the playground after hours. It is against Board policy and unsafe to leave children unsupervised in this way, even for a short period of time. Before and after-school care options are available for those who need to take advantage of this due to work commitments.

Finally, a belated acknowledgement to legendary New Zealand singer, songwriter and all-round music icon Tim Finn, who generously visited our Y6 students at the end of last term. Tim answered questions and performed with the children in connection with their 'Parihaka' topic.

This was a fantastic experience for all concerned, and a rare opportunity to talk to such a renowned artist about his work.
